To Whom It May Concern:

Please consider this letter as the official position of Precision Marshall Steel Company in relation to the Dodd-Frank Act. The material we supply is “Conflict Mineral Free” to satisfy the requirements of this act.

Our position is: “We do not directly or indirectly purchase any conflict minerals and to the best of our knowledge, having long-term relationships with reputable mills, these sources of our raw materials are not purchasing directly or indirectly any conflict minerals that would end up shipping in finished form.”

Please let us know how we can be of further assistance.

Best regards,
